BG-MG-1001.1 — Tooltip is not displayed in the Sidebar Mini Calendar after saving the Start time

To Do ⌄   ⚡   ※ Improve Bug

Description

When saving a single Start time value, the tooltip in the Sidebar Mini Calendar does not appear when hovering over the date. It is displayed only after refreshing the page.

Environment
macOS Monterey 12.7.6, Google Chrome 142.0.7444.176

Preconditions
- The user is logged into the system at `https://example.medicalcrm.com` with the Admin role.
- The user is on the "Calendar" page at `https://example.medicalcrm.com/calendar`.
- The user has the "Edit Provider In Calendar" modal window open with a selected provider, date, interval, visit status, and location.
- The "Start" field contains a selected time value (the value is selected but not yet saved).

Steps to reproduce
1. Click the "Save" button.
2. Find the "Sidebar Mini Calendar" and hover over the selected date.

Actual result

The tooltip with the provider's name and the time value does not appear after saving the Start time.

Quickstart

It is displayed only after refreshing the page.

Expected result

Next to the selected date, after the provider's
name in the tooltip, a single time value is displayed
(without a dash and without an End time).
